CONTENTS.

VOLUME V.

No. 1, contains, An Address to the Republicans of the Island of Great Britain.—On the Birth-days of Thomas Paine, the real Englishman and the fictitious Jesus the Jew.—Constitutional Association.—Case of Mrs. Jane Carlile.—Address of Mrs. Carlile to the Court on receiving its Judgment.—The Protest of Mary Ann Carlile.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, by R. Carlile.—To Ditto, by a Friend to Freedom.—To the Editor of the Republican, a Parody.—The Sea Officer.—Resolutions for forming a Deistical Society.—Aphorisms selected from the Writings of Condorcet.

No. 2, contains, An Address, &c.—Celebration of the Birth-day of Mr. Carlile at Leeds.—Letter from and to Mr R. W. Byerley of Leeds.—Stoddart, Dr. Murray and Sharpe, versus the Temple of Reason.—Case of Mary Ann Carlile.—Petition of Mary Ann Carlile to the King, with Letter to Lord Sidmouth.—Address to the Public by the Committee for the management of the Subscriptions for Mr. Carlile and Family.—Resolutions of a Public Meeting at the Paul's Head, Cateaton Street, on the 12th of November, 1821, for the aforesaid object.—The Battle, Poetry.

No. 3, contains, An Address, &c.—Reflections, Moral and Political, by Thomas Single.—Letter from and to Mr. James Affleck of Edinburgh.—An Acrostic on Richard Carlile.—Renunciation of the Christian Mythology, by Amariah Batty.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter the Second.

No. 4, contains, An Address, &c.—Poetical Address spoken at the Anniversary Dinner, in London, to commemorate the Birth-day of Thomas Paine, January 29, 1821, by J. W. Dunstone.—Reflections, Moral and Political, continued.—Subscriptions.—Notice respecting Mr. Wedderburn.—Letter from and to Mr. Abel Hellawell of Huddersfield.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter the Third.—Stoddart, Murray and Sharpe, versus the Temple of Reason.—To Mr. Carlile by T. Whitworth.

No. 5, contains, An Address, &c.—To the Metropolitan Republicans, by John Jones.—To the Editor of the Republican, on Prejudice and black Gothism, by Regulator.—Aphorisms of Condorcet.—On Theism, by Voltaire.—Notice of "Queen Mab," and reply to Consistency.—On Prisons, and what is called Prison Discipline.—Reflections, Moral and Political, continued.—Epigram.

No. 6, contains, An Address, &c.—Case of Mary Ann Carlile.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter the Fourth.—Character of Woman.—Letter from and to Mr. Francis Marsden of Sheffield.—Letter from and to Mr. James Maber of Bath.—Letter from and to Mr. John Bell of Carlisle.—To Mr. Carlile, by T. Whitworth.—Notice of "Queen Mab," "Cain, a Mystery," and a "Royal Reviewer."

No. 7, contains, An Address, &c.—Letter from Mr. Cobbett to Mr. Carlile, copied from his Register.—Letter to Mr. Carlile, by a Liberal Christian.—To Ditto, by Mr. John Townsend.—Anecdote relating to the National Debt.—Letter from and to Mr. Howard Fish.—To Mr. Carlile by Mr. Richard Moore of Manchester.—Aphorisms of Condorcet.—To Mr. Carlile from a Deist.—The Effects of a Belief in a future State of Existence on Society.—Address to Mr. Carlile from Liverpool.—Letter to Ditto from his imprisoned Shopmen.—Anecdote relating to Thomas Paine.

No. 8, contains, An Address, &c.—Celebration of the Birth-day of Thomas Paine in London, Edinburgh, Birmingham, Manchester, Stockport and Stokesly; Song and Poetry by W. V. Holmes.—Case of Mr. David Ridgway.—Poetical Address by E. R.—Letter to Dr. England.—Letter from and to Mr. John Heys, Bolton.

No. 9, contains, An Address, &c.—Letter to Mr. Hunt.—Correspondence between Mr. Carlile and the Solicitor to the Treasury.

No. 10, contains, An Address, &c.—The folly of Prosecutions for Libel.—A copy of the "North Briton" No. 45.—Correspondence with the Secretary of State for the Home Department.—Celebration of the Birth-day of Thomas Paine at Ashton-under-line. Letter from R. A. of Edinburgh with Critical Enquiry into the Harmony of the Books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.—Correspondence between Mr. Carlile and Madame M. B. de Bonneville.—Fragment of a Letter to Camille Jordan, by Thomas Paine.

No. 11, contains, An Address, &c.—Death of Stewart the celebrated Traveller.—Letter to Mr. Carlile by Chirurgicus.—To Ditto, by Regulator, on the progress of Reason, the belief of a Deist, and the reasons for his Belief.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter Fifth.—Letter from Lord Byron to Mr. Murray his Publisher.—Letter from and to Mr. Robert Armstrong of Stokesley.—The Scripturian's Creed.

No. 12, contains, An Address, &c.—Letter from and to Mr. Robert Robinson.—To Mr. Carlile, by P. F.—To Ditto, by Abraham Walker of Rastrich.—To Ditto by James Humphreys of Springdale.—To Abraham Walker.—To the Vice Society, by John Jones.—Celebration of the Birth-day of Thomas Paine at Leeds.—Scripturian's Creed concluded.

No. 13, contains, An Address, &c.—Celebration of the Birthday of Thomas Paine continued.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter the Sixth.—Letter from and to Mr. Moses Colclough of Nottingham.—Letter to Mr. James Humphreys.

No. 14, contains, An Address, &c.—Letter to Mr. James Humphreys concluded.—Letter from and to Mr. Joshua Kershaw of Oldham.—Letters from Mr. Joseph Gill and Mr. William Liddle of Leeds.—Letter from and to Mr. James Watson of Leeds. Letter from and to Mr. James Affleck of Edinburgh, with report of the proceedings of a Public Meeting at Edinburgh.—Letter from and to Mr. William Perry of Stockport.

No. 15, contains, An Address, &c.—Letter Second to Mr. Henry Hunt.—Letter from and to Mr. Samuel Mercer of Hyde near Manchester.—Letter from and to Mr. James Wheeler.—Case of John Matthews.—A Dialogue.—Letter from R. A. of Edinburgh, and Critical Enquiry into the Harmony of the Gospels continued.—Bolton Subscription List.

No. 16, contains, An Address, &c.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter the Seventh.—Letter from and to Mr. James Thomson of Tickle Street, Manchester.—Reports of three Public Meetings held at Leeds, on the subject of addressing Sir Charles Wolseley. Notice of a Subscription from Whitefield near Manchester. Address from the London Committee, and London Subscriptions continued. Notice of the Publication of Lawrence's Lectures; and the first days Proceedings on the Mock Trials of R. Carlile.

No. 17, contains, An Address, &c.—Letters from and to Mr. John Smithson of Leeds.—Letter from B. A. of Canterbury.—Critical Enquiry into the Harmony of the Gospels continued.—The Koran Society.—Letter from Mr. Abraham Walker of Rastrick.—Letter from and to Mr. James Humphreys.—Letter from Mr. John Grattan, jun. of Wingerworth. Notice of Lawrence's Lectures on Physiology, Zoology, and the Natural History of Man.—Continuation of the Report of the Leeds Public Meetings.

No. 18, contains, An Address, &c.—To the Christian Judge Bailey, Letter Eighth.—Extracts from "Le Bon Sens."—Continuation of a Critical Enquiry into the Harmony of the Gospels.—Letter from Mr. William Braithwaite of Leeds.—Petition of Mary Ann Carlile to the House of Commons, and Correspondence with Mr. Hobhouse about presenting it.—Rules and Regulations of the London Zetetic Society.—The Patriots, Poetry.—Notice concerning the continuation of the Publication of the Mock Trials.

No. 19, contains, An Address, &c.—Conclusion of the Report of the three Public Meetings at Leeds.—Letter from and to Mr. John Harper of Manchester, in behalf of the Miles Platting Reading Society.—An Address from the Female Republicans of Manchester to Mrs. and Mary Ann Carlile, with an answer to the same.—Letter from and to Mr. John Bottomley of Manchester.—Notice of a London Subscription, and a Subscription from Stokes-ley Yorkshire.—Letter from and to Mr. Elijah Ridings of Failsworth near Manchester.—Letter from and to Mr. John Heys of Bolton, with notice of Presents to Mrs. Carlile from the Republicans of Bolton.—Letter to Mrs. Carlile from Mrs. Elizabeth Gaunt with an answer.—Notice of a Subscription from Paris.

No. 20, contains, An Address, &c.—Leeds Public Meeting for a Subscription for Mr. Carlile and Family.—An Address to Reformers by Richard Moore.—Letter to the Editor of the Republican by Mr. Bayley Potts.—Reasons of a Deist for not believing Christianity.—The Bosquetian Creed with comment.—Reasons for renouncing Christianity, by W. V. Holmes.—Letter from and to Mr. James Moore of Halifax.—Case of Mary Ann Carlile. A Subscription of Poetry and Money to Mr. Carlile, Family and Shopmen.—Prospectus of the Republican.—Review of some Errors in the Fifth Volume.—Notice of a Manchester Meeting, (not signed nor well worded, inserted without being seen by the Editor). Continuation of London Subscriptions,

No. 21, or Appendix to Vol. V. contains, An Address &c.—Letter to the Editor of the Republican, by I. B. L.—Letter from Mr. Davison.—Letter from Joseph Swann to a Friend in Leeds. Leeds Public Meeting concluded.—Letter from and to Mr. Robert Robinson.—On Man and the necessity of his following the laws of Nature.—Letter from and to Mr. Charles Walker of Ashton-under-line.—Letter from and to the Republicans of Wisbeach.—On the absurdity of Religion, by Epicurus.—A few Plain Questions addressed to those Connoiseurs of Revelation, Judge Bailey, James Humphrey, &c.—Letter from Mr. H. Myers, an American.—Bolton Law.